

THE OUTER BANKS OF NORTH CAROLINA
Wright Brothers National Memorial
Kill Devil Hills, North Carolina

Near the site of the Wright brothers' first powered flights of December 17, 1903, is a 3,000 ft. airstrip, providing access to the birth-place of aviation. To the left is a visitor center and in the background on Kill Devil Hill, the Wright Memorial Shaft.

Color Photo by P. Bayne

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD

Address

© 1965 Elizabeth City News Company, Elizabeth City, N. C.

